Module Jurying Rubric - GUIDING QUESTIONS

The Task - Scoring Elements
Task Clarity & Coherence	✓ Does the teaching task engage students in applying CCSS reading and writing skills to develop a response to a prompt that has a clear purpose and focus, addresses important disciplinary content, and allows for diverse responses?
Content	✓ Does the teaching task build students' content knowledge, enduring understandings, and complex, higher order thinking skills central to the discipline?
Text(s)	✓ Are the provided text(s) engaging, authentic, accessible, tightly relevant to the prompt, and appropriately challenging, requiring students to apply CCSS reading skills?
Student Product	✓ Does the teaching task engage students in applying CCSS writing skills to produce writing in a genre that is appropriately challenging, central to the discipline, and appropriate for the task content?
The Module - Scoring Elements
What Skills?	✓ Does the Skills List address the specific demands of the teaching task, and support access to the texts and completion of the teaching task?
What Instruction?	✓ Do the mini-tasks, instructional strategies, and materials provide students with opportunity to develop CCSS reading and writing skills and sufficient support to complete the teaching task successfully?
What Results?	✓ Do the student work samples and (optional) classroom assessment provide targeted evidence about student progress toward meeting the goals of the module?
Teacher Work	✓ Does the module provide clear and detailed information that will allow others to use or adapt it?
