

Through the Looking Glass

Using philosophy as a lens for exploring Lord of the Flies

Making Connections: Freud

Page #	Quote	Connection
16	"You try, Ralph. You'll call the others..."
17	"Gosh"...
18	"Meanwhile Ralph continued..."
18	"The children gave him the same simple obedience that they had given to the men with megaphones..."
18	"something was being done..."
20	"The group of cloaked boys began to scatter..."
29	"Eyes shining, mouths open, triumphant, they savored..."
31	"He raised his arm in the air. There came a pause, a hiatus..."
34	"So we may be here a long time..."
40	"Ralph and Jack looked at each other while society paused..."
51	"The madness came into his eyes again..."
60	"In his other life Maurice had received chastisement..."
63	"He looked in astonishment, no longer at himself..."
72	"He looked at Piggy, at the hunters, at Ralph..."
72	"With some positive action before them..."
82	"Anyway, you don't hunt or build or help - ..."
88	"I don't believe in the beast of course..."
91	"Why should choosing make a difference?..."
100	"Jack sneered at him. 'Frightened?'..."

Subject area/course: ELA

Grade level: 9th Grade

Task source: NH Task Bank

Original Author: Jeanne Sturges

Reviewed and Revised by: NH PA Network Review Team (CCE, NCIEA, NHDOE, NH educators)

101	"Sucks to the littluns...
101-102	"Conch! Conch! We don't need the conch anymore. We...
108	"I'm chief... Mutinously, the boys fell silent or muttering...

Subject area/course: ELA

Grade level: 9th Grade

Task source: NH Task Bank

Original Author: Jeanne Sturges

Reviewed and Revised by: NH PA Network Review Team (CCE, NCIEA, NHDOE, NH educators)