

The expectation is that you have at least 5 sources, all documented in this annotated bibliography as well as annotated and saved in your Scrible library

Directions

- For the 5 sources in your annotated bibliography, enter the bibliographic information in MLA format, then complete the SOAPStone and summarize, assess and reflect sections
 - At a minimum, each section should have a well written sentence. In order to push to higher scores on the cognitive skill rubric, expect to write a thoughtful paragraph on each section.

Source #1 MLA format citation:
Speaker: Who is narrating/who is speaking?
Occasion: What was going on that prompted this source to be created?
Audience: Who is the INTENDED audience?
Perspective: Whose side is being told?
Subject:
Summarize: What are the main arguments? What is the point of this site or article? What topics are covered? If someone asked what this is about, what would you say?
Assess: Is it a useful source? How does it compare with other sources in your bibliography? Who is the author? Is he/she qualified in this subject? Is the information reliable and current? Is this source biased or objective? What is the goal of this source?
Reflect: Was this source helpful to you? How does it help you shape your argument? How can you use this source in your research project? Has it changed how you think about your topic?

Source #2 MLA format citation:

Speaker: Who is narrating/who is speaking?

Occasion: What was going on that prompted this source to be created?

Audience: Who is the INTENDED audience?

Perspective: Whose side is being told?

Subject:

Summarize: What are the main arguments? What is the point of this site or article? What topics are covered? If someone asked what this is about, what would you say?

Assess: Is it a useful source? How does it compare with other sources in your bibliography? Who is the author? Is he/she qualified in this subject? Is the information reliable and current? Is this source biased or objective? What is the goal of this source?

Reflect: Was this source helpful to you? How does it help you shape your argument? How can you use this source in your research project? Has it changed how you think about your topic?

Source #3 MLA format citation:

Speaker: Who is narrating/who is speaking?

Occasion: What was going on that prompted this source to be created?

Audience: Who is the INTENDED audience?

Perspective: Whose side is being told?

Subject:

Summarize: What are the main arguments? What is the point of this site or article? What topics are covered? If someone asked what this is about, what would you say?

Assess: Is it a useful source? How does it compare with other sources in your bibliography? Who is the author? Is he/she qualified in this subject? Is the information reliable and current? Is this source biased or objective? What is the goal of this source?

Reflect: Was this source helpful to you? How does it help you shape your argument? How can you use this source in your research project? Has it changed how you think about your topic?

Source #4 MLA format citation:

Speaker: Who is narrating/who is speaking?
Occasion: What was going on that prompted this source to be created?
Audience: Who is the INTENDED audience?
Perspective: Whose side is being told?
Subject:
Summarize: What are the main arguments? What is the point of this site or article? What topics are covered? If someone asked what this is about, what would you say?
Assess: Is it a useful source? How does it compare with other sources in your bibliography? Who is the author? Is he/she qualified in this subject? Is the information reliable and current? Is this source biased or objective? What is the goal of this source?
Reflect: Was this source helpful to you? How does it help you shape your argument? How can you use this source in your research project? Has it changed how you think about your topic?

Source #5 MLA format citation:
Speaker: Who is narrating/who is speaking?

Occasion: What was going on that prompted this source to be created?

Audience: Who is the INTENDED audience?

Perspective: Whose side is being told?

Subject:

Summarize: What are the main arguments? What is the point of this site or article? What topics are covered? If someone asked what this is about, what would you say?

Assess: Is it a useful source? How does it compare with other sources in your bibliography? Who is the author? Is he/she qualified in this subject? Is the information reliable and current? Is this source biased or objective? What is the goal of this source?

Reflect: Was this source helpful to you? How does it help you shape your argument? How can you use this source in your research project? Has it changed how you think about your topic?